Sekurglass Joins Automotive Glass Experts (AGE) as a Partner Supplier

Automotive Glass Experts (AGE) is proud to announce a strategic partnership with Sekurglass, a distinguished Italian company specializing in automotive glass solutions since 1975. This collaboration strengthens AGE's global supply chain by providing members with reliable access to high-quality automotive tempered glass products, along with improved stock availability to facilitate swift and flexible service options, particularly in Europe, and North Africa.

Sekurglass, operating under Mutti Cristalli Srl, has established itself as a key player in the automotive tempered glass sector, recognized for its efficient quality control processes. With manufacturing facilities in Biassono, Italy, the company offers a comprehensive range of high-quality tempered glass products to meet diverse automotive needs.

"The partnership with Sekurglass aligns perfectly with our mission to provide high-level resources to our members," said Giorgio Pompole, board member responsible for suppliers at AGE. "Mutti Cristalli's extensive experience and commitment to quality will significantly benefit our network and, ultimately, our customers worldwide."
